

S.LEAGUE REVIEW

1st January 2011—31st March 2012

Introduction

The 2011 Great Eastern-YEO's S.League season – the 16th season since the establishment of the S.League in 1996 – will go down in history as one of the most competitive in the history of our professional league.

Traditional heavyweights Tampines Rovers FC and Home United FC remained neck-and-neck in the sprint for the S.League title until the final day of the season before the Stags pipped the Protectors to the title by just a single point. It was Tampines Rovers' first S.League title since 2006.

The 2011 Great Eastern-YEO's S.League season marked the return of Tanjong Pagar United FC to the S.League while Sengkang Punggol FC re-branded themselves as Hougang United FC. Two foreign clubs, Etoile FC and Albirex Niigata FC (S), were among the 12 teams which participated in the 2011 season.

Beep Test

The minimum beep test requirement for 2011 was maintained at 13.1 for S.League players and 12.7 for Prime League players.

S.League matches are now more competitive and played at a higher tempo and faster pace. Our players' improved overall fitness levels also meant that our national players are better prepared physically for the international matches.

Salary Caps

There was no change to the salary caps and the total monthly salary cap for each S.League club was maintained at $85,000 in 2011.

S.League Charity Shield

As always, the S.League Charity Shield was the curtain raiser for the 2011 S.League season and was contested by the 2010 S.League Champions, Etoile FC and the 2010 Singapore Cup champions, Tampines Rovers FC.

Tampines Rovers FC came from behind to defeat the defending S.League champions Etoile FC 2-1, with goals scored by Aleksandar Duric and Korean midfielder Park Yo Seb.

Great Eastern-Yeo's S.League

Tampines Rovers FC became only the second team in S.League history to have won the S.League title on more than two occasions. The Stags staved off strong challenge from Home United FC to win the 2011 league title, earning themselves entry to the 2012 AFC Cup.

Great Eastern-Yeo's Prime League

Geylang United FC's Prime League Team clinched their third Prime League title in their club's history, boasting the league's best defensive record along the way. Gombak United FC came close, finishing second with 52 points, while Tampines Rovers finished third in the Prime League once again with 51 points.

Singapore League Cup

S.League teams participated in the Singapore League Cup. The top 5 teams in the 2010 S.League standings were given byes into the quarter-final (two legged) format. The grand final was held on 30 July at the Jalan Besar Stadium.

Hougang United FC provided the League Cup with a few eye-opening upsets, firstly eliminating S.League heavyweights Singapore Armed Forces FC, beating them 2-1 on SAFFC's home soil, followed by a 1-0 victory over another heavyweight in the form of Home United FC.

Despite Hougang United's impressive run, it was Albirex Niigata FC (S) who eventually lifted the trophy after beating Hougang United FC 5-4 on penalties, following a deadlock in both regulation and extra time. This was Albirex Niigata FC (S) maiden trophy in Singapore since they joined the S.League in 2004.

RHB Singapore Cup

S.League runners-up Home United FC won the RHB Singapore Cup after beating a gritty Albirex Niigata (S) 1-0 after extra time in the final at Jalan Besar Stadium on 19 November 2011.

2010 S.League Champions Etoile FC finished in third place by thumping Hougang United 3-0, earning themselves some form of consolation after a disappointing league season that saw them finish in 5th position.

The RHB Singapore Cup began in May with the usual 16 teams in the mix – 11 S.League clubs and 5 invited foreign teams. The invited teams were Australia's South Melbourne FC, Pattaya United FC from the Thailand Premier League, and Phnom Penh Crown FC from Cambodia, Malaysia's Young Tigers (Harimau Muda) and lastly Okkthar United from Myanmar, led by former Singapore National Team coach P.N. Sivaji.

The tournament moved into the two-legged Quarter Final stage in August, where Okkthar United took on Hougang United, which was undoubtedly the clash of the Quarter-Final stages.

FAS Annual Report (Jan 2011 – Mar 2012)

In front of a packed crowd of about 2,600 fans, Hougang United thumped Okkthar United 3-0, seemingly ending Okkthar's hopes of progressing beyond the Quarter-Final stages. However, Okkthar United won the hearts of many as they staged a valiant fight back; they led the second leg 3-1 with 30 minutes of regulation time to play. However it was not to be for P.N. Sivaji's men, as Hougang United held on to progress to the Semi-Finals.

The semi-finals took place in late September – with Hougang United once again providing as tasty a clash as they did in the Quarter-Finals, drawing 2-2 with Albirex Niigata (S) in the first leg, only to fall 2-3 in extra time in the second leg.

Home United just about edged the other semi-final, with star man Frederic Mendy putting one past his former team Etoile in the second leg to send Home United to the final.

Home United then went on to secure their 5th Singapore Cup title in their club's history, defeating Albirex Niigata FC (S) 1-0 in the Grand Final played at the Jalan Besar Stadium on 19th November 2011.

AFC Cup

Our sole representatives in the AFC Cup were 2010 S.League runners-up Tampines Rovers, as defending champions Etoile FC were not eligible to participate in this Cup as per AFC Competition regulations. Tampines Rovers were grouped together with Thai Premier League side Muang Thong United, Hanoi T&T FC of Vietnam and Victory Sports Club from Maldives.

Tampines Rovers did well in the group stages, finishing group runners-up behind Muang Thong United, earning themselves a spot in the round of 16. They played against Iraqi side Erbil SC, the winners of their respective group. Unfortunately the first knockout stage was where it ended for Tampines Rovers, as they lost 1-0 after extra time.

Sultan of Selangor's Cup

The 2011 Sultan of Selangor's Cup was played on 1st October at the Shah Alam Stadium in Selangor. The Singapore Selection Team took on a Selangor Selection side featuring the likes of former Manchester United player Jesper Blomqvist and former Liverpool player Jason McAteer in front of a bumper crowd of 75,000, with the coveted trophy and RM 50,000 prize money at stake.

Singapore went on to win this entertaining match 1-0, successfully defending the Sultan of Selangor's Cup.

Unfortunately, there was not to be similar success for the Singapore Veterans, as they fell 3-1 to the Selangor Veterans side.

Club sponsors and Management

All 12 S.League clubs secured main sponsors for the 2011 season. A notable change was seen at Woodlands Wellington FC, with the appointment of Mr Winson Song as the Club

Chairman. Together with him, he brought in a new management team to manage the Club.

Player Scouting / Centralised Foreign Trialists

The FAS / S.League Centralised Foreign Trials were held from 25 October 2011 to 3 November 2011. A total of 26 players attended the trial.

Three (3) matches against Balestier Khalsa FC, Etoile FC and lastly, the Singapore Under-23 side were organised for the S.League coaches to evaluate the trialists.

Out of the 26 players who participated in the trials, 5 players were signed by S.League clubs for the 2012 Great Eastern-YEO's S.League season. For the 2012 season most clubs signed new foreign players, a bulk of them completely new to the S.League, which they scouted through their own club network and scouting system.

S.League Awards Night

The 16th S.League Awards Night was held at the Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel on 29 November 2011.

Singapore Armed Forces FC's Mislav Karoglan walked away with the coveted Great Eastern Player of the Year award, together with the RHB Top Scorer Award, a reward for the 33 goals he scored in the 2011 S.League season.
