

FAS Disciplinary Committee Cases in 2019 (as of 15 May)

No.	Case No.	Competitions	Defendant (unless otherwise stated)	Matters	Basic Facts	Decision
1	1 of 2019	FAS National Football League Division One	Yishun Sentek Mariners FC player, Mr Muhammad Shahir Bin Hamzah	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant allowed an unknown person to impersonate him and take the mandatory 2.4km Fitness test on his behalf on 16 March 2019	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr Muhammad Shahir Bin Hamzah is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test.</li> <li>2. Mr Muhammad Shahir Bin Hamzah is banned from being registered for the League for a duration of 2019 season, 2020 season and 2021 season.</li> </ol>
2		FAS National Football League Division One	Yishun Sentek Mariners FC player, Mr Masnashzreen Bin Masturi	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant allowed an unknown person to impersonate him and take the mandatory 2.4km Fitness test on his behalf on 16 March 2019	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr Masnashzreen Bin Masturi is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test.</li> <li>2. Mr Masnashzreen Bin Masturi is banned from being registered for the League for a duration of 2019 season, 2020 season and 2021 season.</li> </ol>
3	2 of 2019	FAS National Football League Division One	Yishun Sentek Mariners FC player, Mr Mohammad Solehin Bin Mohamed Rosman	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant impersonated another player and took the fitness tests on his behalf on 10 March 2019	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr Mohammad Solehin Bin Mohamed Rosman is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test.</li> <li>2. Mr Mohammad Solehin Bin Mohamed Rosman is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.</li> </ol>
4		FAS National Football League Division One	Yishun Sentek Mariners FC player, Mr Shamsurin Bin Abdul Rahman	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant misrepresented their participation in the fitness test by allowing another player to take the tests on his behalf on 10 March 2019	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr Shamsurin Bin Abdul Rahman is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test.</li> <li>2. Mr Shamsurin Bin Abdul Rahman is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.</li> </ol>
5	3 of 2019	FAS National Football League Division One	Yishun Sentek Mariners FC player, Mr Muhammad Zulkifli Bin Suzliman	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant misrepresented their participation in the fitness test by allowing another player to take the tests on his behalf on 24 February 2019	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr Muhammad Zulkifli Bin Suzliman is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test.</li> <li>2. Mr Muhammad Zulkifli Bin Suzliman is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.</li> </ol>
6		FAS National Football League Division Two	Kaki Bukit SC player, Mr Nasrulah Bin Sidek	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant impersonated another player and took the fitness tests on his	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mr Nasrulah Bin Sidek is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test.</li> </ol>

					behalf on 24 February 2019	2. Mr Nasrulah Bin Sidek is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.
7	4 of 2019	FAS National Football League Division One	Singapore Khalsa Association player, Mr Haidil Sufian Bin Rosli	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant impersonated another player and took the fitness tests on his behalf on 16 March 2019	1. Mr Haidil Sufian Bin Rosli is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test. 2. Mr Haidil Sufian Bin Rosli is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.
8		FAS National Football League Division One	Eunos Crescent FC player, Mr Muhammad Nazri Bin Jaffar	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant impersonated another player and took the fitness tests on his behalf on 16 March 2019	1. Mr Muhammad Nazri Bin Jaffar is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test. 2. Mr Muhammad Nazri Bin Jaffar is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.
9	5 of 2019	FAS National Football League Division One	Eunos Crescent FC player Mr Khairul Syahmi Bin Muhammad Sidek	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant misrepresented their participation in the fitness test by allowing another player to take the tests on his behalf on 16 March 2019	1. Mr Khairul Syahmi Bin Muhammad Sidek is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test. 2. Mr Khairul Syahmi Bin Muhammad Sidek is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.
10		FAS National Football League Division One	Eunos Crescent FC player, Mr Muhammad Hairul Bin Safullbahri	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant impersonated another player and took the fitness tests on his behalf on 16 March 2019	1. Mr Muhammad Hairul Bin Safullbahri is found guilty of cheating in the NFL 2.4km Fitness Test. 2. Mr Muhammad Hairul Bin Safullbahri is banned from being registered in any FAS-organised or sanctioned tournaments/competitions until the end of the 2021 season.
11	6 of 2019	Singapore Premier League, Geylang International FC vs Warriors FC on 5 April 2019	Geylang International FC player, Mr Muhammad Syahiran Bin Mohammad Miswan	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant committed an act of violent conduct on opponent at the 64 th minute of play	1. Mr Muhammad Syahiran Bin Mohammad Miswan is found guilty of violent conduct. 2. Mr Muhammad Syahiran Bin Mohammad Miswan is suspended from three (3) matches in the Singapore Premier League with immediate effect.
12	7 of 2019	Women's Premier League, Police Sports Association vs Warriors FC on 26 March 2019	Police Sports Association player, Ms Huraizah Binte Ismail	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant committed an act of violent conduct on match official	1. Ms Huraizah Binte Ismail is found guilty of violent conduct. 2. Ms Huraizah Binte Ismail is suspended for three (3) matches in the Women's Premier League / Women's National League and given a fine of $300.00, which is suspended so long as she is not found guilty by the Disciplinary Committee of any further misconduct committed during the period ending 31 December 2019.

13	8 of 2019	Singapore Premier League, Balestier Khalsa FC vs Young Lions on 3 May 2019	Balestier Khalsa FC player, Mr Mohammad Hazzuwan Bin Mohammad Halim	Bringing the Game into Disrepute	Defendant committed an act of gross misconduct by spitting on / at opponent during the post-match handshake	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Mr Mohammad Hazzuwan Bin Mohammad Halim is found guilty of gross misconduct.</li><li>2. Mr Mohammad Hazzuwan Bin Mohammad Halim is suspended for six (6) matches in the Singapore Premier League with immediate effect.</li></ol>
----	-----------	--	---	----------------------------------	---	--